Withdrawal, Deferral, Suspension and Cancellation Policy

PURPOSE:

1. To provide a documented process for assessing, approving and recording a deferment of the commencement of study or suspension of study for the student, including keeping documentary evidence on the student’s file of the assessment of the application.

SCOPE:

2. Perth College of Business & Technology may only enable students to defer or temporarily suspend their studies, including granting a leave of absence, during the course through formal agreement in certain limited circumstances.

This policy outlines Perth College of Business & Technology procedure for assessing, approving and recording a deferment of the commencement of study or suspension of study for the student in accordance with the requirements of the National Code and ESOS Act.

DEFINITIONS:

Deferral: means to delay the commencement of a course.

Suspension: means to temporarily delay the enrolment once the course has commenced.

Cancellation: means the cessation of an enrolment on a course.

Misbehaviour: is defined as students who display unacceptable behaviour in accordance with the Student Handbook and Code of Conduct Compassionate or Compelling circumstances: is defined as circumstances beyond the control of the student and which have an impact upon the student’s course progress or wellbeing. These could include, but are not limited to:

a) Serious illness or injury, where a medical certificate states that the student was unable to attend classes,
b) Bereavement of close family members such as parents or grandparents (Where possible a death certificate should be provided),
c) Major political upheaval or natural disaster in the home country requiring emergency travel and this has impacted on the student’s studies,
d) A traumatic experience which could include:
   • Involvement in, or witnessing of a serious accident; or
   • Witnessing or being the victim of a serious crime, and these experiences have impacted on the student (cases should be supported by police or psychologist’s reports)
e) Inability to begin studying on the course commencement date due to delay in receiving a Student VISA PROCEDURE:

PERTH COLLEGE OF BUSINESS & TECHNOLOGY INITIATED

APPENDIX

National Code

Standard 13 – Deferring, suspending or cancelling the student’s enrolment

Outcome of Standard 13

Registered providers may only enable students to defer or temporarily suspend their studies, including granting a leave of absence, during the course through formal agreement in certain limited circumstances.

13.1 The registered provider must have in place documented procedures for assessing, approving and recording a deferment of the commencement of study or suspension of study for the student, including keeping documentary evidence on the student’s file of the assessment of the application.

13.2 The registered provider can only defer or temporarily suspend the enrolment of the student on the grounds of:

   a) Compassionate or compelling circumstances (e.g. illness where a medical certificate states that the student is unable to attend classes), or
   b) Misbehaviour by the student.

13.3 The registered provider must:

   a) Inform the student that deferring, suspending or cancelling his or her enrolment may affect his or her student visa, and
   b) Notify the Secretary of DEST via PRISMS as required under section 19 of the ESOS Act where the student’s enrolment is deferred, temporarily suspended or cancelled.

13.4 The registered provider must inform the student of its intention to suspend or cancel the student’s enrolment where the suspension or cancellation is not initiated by the student and notify the student that he or she has 20 working days to access the registered provider’s internal complaints and appeals process as per Standard 8.1. If the student accesses the registered provider’s internal complaints and appeals process, the suspension or cancellation of the student’s enrolment under this standard cannot take effect until the internal process is completed, unless extenuating circumstances relating to the welfare of the student apply.
